Vineyards: Nestled 1200 meters above sea level in the picturesque town of Laujar, within the breathtaking Almerian Alpujarra region, our vineyards bask in the splendor of the Sierra Nevada mountain range. Here, amidst the rugged terrain and fertile soils, our Macabeo vines thrive, capturing the essence of the sun-drenched slopes.

Growing and Crafting: At Sierra Almagrera, every step of our winemaking process is imbued with care and dedication. Each grape is meticulously hand-harvested in 15kg boxes, ensuring only the finest fruit reaches our cellar. Here, under the watchful eye of our skilled artisans, the grapes undergo gentle maceration in our presses, followed by fermentation in small, temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks, never exceeding 15 degrees Celsius. The fermentation process is halted at precisely the right moment, preserving the natural sugars and allowing for a graceful maturation on its lees for two months.

Tasting: Prepare to embark on a sensory journey with Sierra Almagrera Macabeo. This exquisite white wine dazzles the palate with its luminous, pale hue, offering a symphony of aromas that captivate the senses. Delight in the fragrant notes of tropical fruits, intertwined with hints of fennel and the delicate essence of mountain florals. With each sip, experience the crisp freshness reminiscent of a mountain breeze, as velvety oils caress the palate and a nuanced fruitiness evokes the essence of our vineyard's origins. Indulge in the essence of Sierra Almagrera Macabeo – a testament to the artistry and passion woven into every bottle.
